WE paint a picture of this memorable year at Lenoir Rhyne. We blend the blues and grays of homesickness, defeats, exams, discouragements and petty misunderstandings with the gay reds and yellows of happier times—warm friendships, socials, dates, scholastic successes.

With carefully chosen subjects captured in their familiar settings, properly highlighted with color and beauty, our picture emerges—a cherished memory of an eventful year.

Hickory, N.C.

... this gay, colorful year on the line

Campus... where the memories...

... as a FRESHMAN

the mad excitement of the first days at L. R. . . . frosh caps . . . the Bear Walk and shirt-tail parade . . . humility and reverence felt when in the presence of superior sophs—during rat week, that is . . . getting the low-down on higher-ups . . . afternoon labs . . . preparation for the Homecoming parade . . . exposure to teas, house meetings and fancy formals.

. . . as a SOPHOMORE

impressed with own importance . . . the wonderful feeling of "lording" it over the "Rats" . . . joining every club possible . . .
 instigating anything with fun involved . . . bubbling with school spirit . . . class of the pinochle and bridge fanatics . . . class that just "don't give a happy . . ."

... as a JUNIOR

money conscious . . . with minds that run to big doin's . . . Kampus Kapers in February . . . Junior-Senior in the spring . . . Junior store always open for business . . . winning coveted positions on the varsity . . . electing superlatives . . . knowing how not to study . . . anticipating senior privileges.

... as a SENIOR

mental superiority . . . looking down on lesser beings . . . own Homecoming and May Queens . . . headaches of practice teaching
. . . senior rings . . . good-looking white football sweaters . . .
11:00 "per" every night . . . wheels and BMOC's . . . mascots
. . . senior gift . . . wondering how to be dignified.

Dedicated to Dr.

Albert Keiser

- ... because we shall never forget that he has devoted 24 years to the teaching of Lenoir Rhyne students.
- ... for the assistance he has given us in the study of parliamentary law and the appreciation of English and American literature.
- ... for his outstanding record in the South as a leader in Pi Kappa Delta, and for the numerous forensic awards his students have brought to our college.
- ... because he is a fine Christian gentleman whose enthusiasm and high ideals have made Lenoir Rhyne a greater college.
- ... and, finally, because we shall never forget his Carl Sandburg appearance, his goats, his overshoes, and his love for funny stories.

Dr. Albert Keiser

The President

It is with regret that in this '49 HACAWA we must say farewell to our beloved President whose friendship through the years has proved constant and enriching; whose generous, unselfish spirit has provided us with treasured opportunities and experiences; and whose very character and personality embody the high ideals of our college.

For his years of faithful service devoted to the promotion of the finest in Christian Education and in the development of Christian personalities—the 1949 HACAWA pays tribute to our esteemed President, DR. P. E. MONROE!

FOOTBALL

The Lenoir Rhyne Bears definitely saved the best to last in the 1948 season as they defeated Catawba 16-6. Early in the year the Mountain Bears were rated among the top teams in the conference, but not many thought they could beat Catawba or Appalachian. But beat Catawba was what the Bears did for the first time since 1938, and Lenoir Rhyne's 14-14 tie with Appalachian was the only blemish on the Mountaineers' record as they went on to win the Northern Conference title.

It was the best season since the renewal of football at Lenoir Rhyne as the Bears rolled up a record of six won, three lost, and one tied in their ten gridiron contests. Line play was excellent and the offensive force pushed hard attacks as they amassed 1,358 yards in the ten games. The first sign of a real clicking team came with the routing of Newberry 25-6.

Head Coach Clarence Stasavich and his staff—Gene Winfree, Larry Spearman, Troy Washam and Fred Emmerson—put the Bear team through many drills and practices, rain or shine, and it all paid off. And these coaches really had something to work with because the Bruins were determined to win.

Three Bruins made the all-conference team chosen from the North State Conference—Frank Little, John Charles and Captain John Odom.

Charles and Little made the team last year also. But the Bear team was good along the line—especially along the line, which was hailed on all occasions for their excellent defensive work. The linesmen had the best defensive record in the North State Conference, as they held their opponents in the ten games to only sixty-one points.

SUMMARY OF STATISTICS

The Bear team was led in running by John Charles, Haywood Martin, Charlie Ostwalt, Francis Bonasorte and Bill Clouse. Gene Miller was the top passer, although at times he was assisted by C. A. Frye and others. Most active guards: Frank Snyder, Carl Wakefield, Claude White and George Robinson. Cecil Abee and Raymond Camp held down the center spot. Outstanding tackles were Hanley Painter, Lee Confer and Jimmy Newsome.

The determined spirit and fine performance of the entire Bear team was the reason for the outstanding record in 1948. As one writer has said, "We wonder if Catawba will ever beat Lenoir Rhyne again?" With good Freshman prospects and many returning lettermen, we predict a very successful season next year.

On the Diamond-1948

The 1948 baseball season was a tough one for the Lenoir Rhyne team, but the crew, coached by Art Faircloth, emerged victorious in eight games and lost ten. In the North State Conference the record was six wins and eight losses.

The Lenoir Rhyne wins came in two sets. The first two games at Western Carolina were Lenoir Rhyne victories and then came five losses, followed by six straight wins, which completed the victories for the Bruins. The May Day game which saw Catawba defeated 6-1 by the Bears was one of the most exciting home games.

Eight lettermen reported: Frank Little, Jack Sink, Charlie Oswalt, Jack Triplett, Frank Eller, Bill Helton, Paul Buff and Don Stafford. Newcomers who saw much action were: Ray Withers, Dominick Vallone, Leo Kantorski and Jerry Pless.

Don Stafford, Walter Crowell, Bill Helton and Jerry Pless were the pitchers of the 1948 team. Pless, a Freshman, showed up very well and was the pitcher to defeat Catawba on May Day.
